John St. John (businessman) John St. John (1822-1901) was a British businessman and mining engineer who ran a number of mines at Merthyr Tydfil, mainly in the Brecon Beacons, and latterly, a coke producer at Treorchy in Wales. He took over the Taff Vale Railway at Merthyr Tydfil in 1873 and sold it in 1885, through a long term arrangement with the Grand Junction Railway. He held various positions on the Great Western Railway board for a number of years. He died at Hastings in 1901. How to add current date in SQL. I've tried like this myQuery = "Select DATEADD(d, -12, GETDATE())"; But I get error on that line with below error. Conversion failed when converting date and/or time from character string. A: You can use getdate() myQuery = "Select DATEADD(d, -12, GETDATE())"; According to a new study conducted by the Consumer Reports electronics ratings website, older PCs — even those with new upgrades or (optimal) reselling value — have fewer performance capabilities than newer systems, and are not likely to keep up with newer systems, even if they are running the same software. Perhaps the most interesting detail in the study is that older systems are not usually less capacious in RAM, storage space or processing power, while the older systems do have slower graphics chips than their current counterparts.
